All courses offered in years 10-13 can be found in the relevant Learning Pathways booklets and Curriculum Policy.

3. Exam Seasons and Timetables

3.1 Exam Seasons

Internal exams are scheduled in accordance with the school calendar. All internal exams are held under external exam conditions.

External exams are scheduled in November, January and May/June. Onscreen tests, orals, practicals and NEAs will be scheduled throughout the year depending on the school calendar and examination windows.

The Head of Centre makes the decision on which external examinations series are to be used based on entry availability and demand.

3.2 Timetables

The exams officer will circulate the exam timetables for both external and internal exams once these are confirmed and entries have been submitted.

4. Entries, Entry Details, Late Entries and Resits

4.1 Entries

Candidates are selected for their exam entries by the Heads of Department (and subject teachers).

A candidate or parent/carer can request a subject entry, change of level or withdrawal for consideration by the relevant deadlines.

The centre does not accept entries from external candidates.

4.2 Late Entries

Entry deadlines are circulated to Heads of Department and Senior Leadership Team via email and the school's weekly bulletin.

Late entries are to be submitted by Heads of Department once authorised by the appropriate Senior Leadership Team Line Manager.

4.3 Resits

Candidates are allowed 1 resit per subject in each qualification taught at the school.

Resit decisions will be made in consultation with the candidates, subject teachers, head of post-16, exams officer, head of centre, deputy head, heads of department.

(See also section 5: Exam fees)

5. Exam Fees

Amendment deadline will be circulated to Heads of Department and Senior Leadership Team via email and the school's weekly bulletin. Late entry or amendment fees outside these times are to be paid by departments.

Candidates must pay the fee for an enquiry about a result, should the centre not uphold the enquiry and the candidate insists on pursuing the enquiry. (See also section 11.2: Enquiries about results [EARs])

6. The Equality Act, Additional Learning Needs and Access Arrangements

6.1 The Equality Act (EA)

The Equality Act 2010 extends the application of the EA to general qualifications. All exam centre staff must ensure that the access arrangements and special consideration regulations and guidance are consistent with the law.

6.2 Additional Learning Needs

A candidate's additional learning needs requirements are determined by the ALNCO, consultant/specialist, pastoral teacher and the educational psychologist / specialist teacher.

The ALNCO will inform subject teachers of candidates with additional learning needs who are embarking on a course leading to an exam, and the date of that exam. The ALNCO can then inform individual staff of any specific arrangements that individual candidates may be granted during the course and in the exam. These arrangements must be their normal way of working, day to day.

6.3 Access Arrangements

It is the responsibility of the ALNCO to;

- a. make specific arrangements for candidates to take the exams
- b. make applications to awarding bodies to allow candidates Access Arrangements in exams
- c. have on file the approval confirmation, relevant evidence and signed Data Protection notice for each application for inspection purposes

It may be a requirement for exams staff to help administer this to ensure a thorough understanding of candidates needs in exams. This should be agreed between the Exams Officer and ALNCO.

Rooming for access arrangement candidates will be arranged by the ALNCO with the exams officer.

Invigilation and support for access arrangement candidates will be organised by the ALNCO with the exams officer.

Centre staff MUST NOT offer any arrangements to candidates, any concerns must be directed to the ALNCO.

All exam concessions including separate invigilation must replicate the student's normal way of working. Relevant evidence must be obtained prior to the awarding of exam concessions.

7. Managing Invigilators and Exam Days

7.1 Managing Invigilators

External invigilators will be used for exam supervision.
They will be used for external exams/internal exams

The recruitment of invigilators is the responsibility of the EO.

All invigilators will be required to complete annual training and sign a declaration, indicating whether they have invigilated previously and whether they have been involved in any maladministration / malpractice.

Invigilators are timetabled and briefed by the EO.

7.2 Exam Days

The exams officer will book all exam rooms after liaison with other users and make the question papers, other exam stationery and materials available for the invigilator.

Site management is responsible for setting up the allocated rooms.

The EO/DM/lead invigilator will start all exams in accordance with JCQ guidelines.

Subject staff are not permitted inside the examination rooms.

In practical exams subject teachers may be in attendance in case of any technical difficulties.

Exam papers must not be read by subject teachers or removed from the exam room before the end of a session. All papers/secure documents must be returned to the exams officer. Papers will be distributed to heads of department/faculty at the end of the exam session by the exams officer only.

8. Candidates, Clash Candidates and Special Consideration

8.1 Candidates

The centre's published rules on acceptable dress, behaviour and candidates' use of mobile phones and all electronic devices apply at all times.

Candidates' personal belongings remain their own responsibility and the centre accepts no liability for their loss or damage.

Disruptive candidates are dealt with in accordance with JCQ guidelines.

Any candidate leaving the room temporarily must be accompanied by a member of centre staff.

The exams officer will attempt to contact any candidate who is not present at the start of an exam and deal with them in accordance with JCQ guidelines.

8.2 Clash Candidates

The exams officer will be responsible as necessary for identifying escorts, identifying a secure venue and arranging Overnight Supervision.

8.3 Special Consideration

Should a candidate be too ill to sit an exam, suffer bereavement or other trauma or be taken ill during the exam itself, it is the candidate's responsibility to alert the centre, or the exam invigilator, to that effect.

It may be relevant for a special consideration claim to be supported by appropriate evidence, for example a letter from the candidate's doctor. All claims will be made electronically (where possible – paper based otherwise) by the Exams Officer within seven days of the exam.

9. Coursework/Non-Exam Assessment and Appeals against Internal Assessments

9.1 Coursework/Non-Exam Assessments

Candidates who have to prepare portfolios should do so by the end of the course or centre-defined date.

Heads of department will ensure all coursework/non-exam assessments are ready for despatch/ready for upload, at the correct time and the exams officer will keep a record of what has been sent when and to whom.

Marks for all internally assessed coursework/non-exam assessments are input on the relevant awarding bodies secure websites by subject teachers/heads of department. Where electronic input of marks is not available then teachers/heads of department should ensure relevant documents are delivered to the exams office for return to moderator in a timely fashion.

9.2 Appeals against Internal Assessments

Centres must inform candidates of their centre assessed marks as a candidate is allowed to request a review of the centre's marking before marks are submitted to the awarding body.

The centre is obliged to publish a separate procedure on this subject and it must be available for inspection purposes.

The main points are:

- appeals will only be entertained if they apply to the process leading to an assessment. There is no appeal against the mark or grade awarded
- candidates may appeal if they feel their work has been assessed unfairly, inconsistently or not in accordance with the specification for the qualification
- appeals should be made in writing at least one week prior to the submission date to the head of centre who will decide whether the process used conformed to the necessary requirements

- the head of centre's findings will be notified in writing, copied to the exams officer and recorded for awarding body inspection.

10. Results, Enquiries about Results (EARs) and Access to Scripts (ATS)

10.1 Results

Candidates will receive individual results slips on results days in person at the centre, via email or by post to their home addresses (candidates to provide SAE).

Arrangements for the school to be open on results days are made by the head of centre.

The provision of staff on results days is the responsibility of the Data Manager.

10.2 EARs (Enquiries about Results)

EARs may be requested by centre staff or candidates if there are reasonable grounds for believing there has been an error in marking. In all cases candidate consent forms MUST be completed.

When the centre does not uphold an EAR, a candidate may apply to have an enquiry carried out. If a candidate requires this against the advice of subject staff, they will be charged. (See section 5: Exam fees)

If a candidate requires an EAR they must complete the relevant paperwork to allow the exams officer to make the necessary application.

10.3 ATS (Access to Scripts)

After the release of results, candidates may ask subject staff to request the return of papers.

If a result is queried, the exams officer, teaching staff and head of centre will investigate the feasibility of asking for a review of marking at the centre's expense.

Centre staff may also request scripts for investigation or for teaching purposes. For the latter, the consent of candidates must be obtained.

GCSE review of marking cannot be applied for once an original script has been returned.

If a candidate requires an ATS they must complete the relevant paperwork to allow the exams officer to make the necessary application.

11. Certificates

Certificates are to be collected and signed for in person at designated events or following a request.

Certificates may not be collected on behalf of a candidate by a third party unless written consent is provided by the candidate.

Certificates may not be withheld from candidates who owe fees.

The centre retains all unclaimed certificates under secure conditions for a minimum of 12 months from the date of issue.

12. Exam Contingency

This plan examines potential risks and issues that could cause disruption to the management and administration of the exam process at St Julian's School. By outlining actions/procedures to be followed in case of disruption it is intended to mitigate the impact these disruptions have on our exam process.

Alongside internal processes, this plan is informed by information contained in the Joint contingency plan for the examination system in England, Wales and Northern Ireland where it is stated that "Centres should prepare plans for any disruption to examinations as part of their general emergency planning. It is important to ensure that relevant centre staff are familiar with the plan. Consideration should be given as to how these arrangements will be communicated to candidates, parents and staff should disruption to examinations occur."
